TWO PLANNED SEASIDE ESTATES

GORING HALL, WORTHING, AND HAM MANOR, ANGMERING

WHAT would we not give to be able to put the clock back, say, twenty years, to remove all the bungalow towns from our coasts and to start again, with an almost clean slate, planning and developing our new seaside resorts so as to make the best of their attractions? Peace-havens come into being through carelessness and want of forethought, because there is muddling instead of planning, drift instead of purpose, laissez-faire instead of reasonable control.

whole property has been town-planned, so that for every road on the estate there is a schedule governing the size, number, and cost of houses. Thus in one road only houses costing £1,000-£1,250 and with a cubic capacity of 20,000-25,000ft. can be built. The minimum cost of houses will vary from £750 in one or two closes to £1,500 for houses fronting the sea. A decision of great importance has been made in the lay-out of the sea frontage. Instead of the usual dull asphalt promenade there will be a wide stretch of open green left between the houses and fore-

Live where the Sunshine Quota's Highest

Here's the ideal, unspoiled life—the pleasant open-air living—unusually rare in this country. Sunny and spacious in setting, it is really for you within the walls of London. Here you can have among the beautiful surroundings, with a choice of views all around your door. You may see, from your house, the sea or the sun through the old-world garden to the beach where you can see the children play—there is, in fact, all that the best home can offer for an extremely reasonable price. You can buy a house, or build your own on one of the many charming sites available for any type, because 2500 to 3000 sq. ft. house plots are available for the Goring Hall Estate.
